

Workshop on Pathology Endpoints in Endocrine Disruptor Screening: The Pubertal Development and Thyroid Function Assay March 21, 2013

Agenda: Morning Session (Rodbell Auditorium)

- 9:00-9:15 Welcome Remarks, Dr. John Bucher, Associate Director, National Toxicology Program (NTP) and Director, NTP Division, NIEHS
- 9:15-10:00 Dr. Douglas Wolf, US EPA, Keynote Webcast: Overview of the EPA Endocrine Disruptor Program: Present and Future
- 10:00-10:30 Dr. Robert Parker, Huntingdon Life Sciences: Reproductive Toxicologist: The Study Director's Perspective on the Pubertal Assay
- 10:30-10:45 Coffee Break sponsored by  WIL RESEARCH
- 10:45-11:15 Dr. Karen Regan, Regan Path/Tox Services: Evaluating the Female Reproductive System
- 11:15-11:45 Dr. Dianne Creasy, Huntingdon Life Sciences: Evaluating the Male Reproductive System
- 11:45-12:05 Dr. Dipak Giri, Integrated Laboratory Systems: Clinical Pathology Endpoints in the Pubertal Assay
- 12:05-12:25 Dr. Catherine Picut, WIL Research: Thyroid Endpoints in the Pubertal Assay
- 12:25-12:30 AM Session Wrap-up; Instructions for PM Sessions
- 12:30-1:30 Lunch: NIEHS café (On your own)

Agenda: Afternoon Session (Rodbell A or C)

- 1:30-3:00 Male Reproductive Assay Breakout Group (Rodbell A) Dr. Paul Foster, NTP, NIEHS, Co-Leader; Dr. George Parker, WIL Research, Rapporteur
- Or*
- 1:30-3:00 Female Reproductive Assay Breakout Group (Rodbell C) Dr. Darlene Dixon, NTP, NIEHS, Co-Leader; Dr. Kevin Keane, Consultant, Rapporteur
- 3:00-3:15 Coffee Break sponsored by  Huntingdon Life Sciences
Working for a better future
- 3:15-3:25 Male Breakout Group Report by Dr. George Parker
- 3:25-3:35 Female Breakout Group Report by Dr. Kevin Keane
- 3:35-4:15 Panel Discussion – Panelists/All Attendees
- 4:15-4:30 Summation to be forwarded to STP Scientific Regulatory Policy Committee
- 4:30 Adjourn

